

By Train

Rail users may travel to nearby Didcot Parkway (10 minutes by road) or Oxford (35 minutes by road), both of which are main line stations with regular train services.

By Air

The nearest major airport is London Heathrow, some 55 minutes by road from Harwell.

By Road

Harwell is situated close to the A34, which is easily reachable from the M4 and M40 motorways.

A34 Northbound: Leave A34 at the Chilton interchange, signposted Wantage A4185 (A417). Continue along the A4185 – Harwell Science and Innovation Campus is about 1 mile north on the left-hand side.

A34 Southbound: Leave A34 at Milton interchange, signposted Didcot and Wantage A4130 (A417). Follow the signs for Wantage and at the Rowstock roundabout continue straight over and proceed for about 1 mile. The Harwell Science and Innovation Campus is on the right-hand side.
